Morton's Celebrated Gold Pens.—Improvements made in the machinery for manufacturing Gold Pens and secured took wibscriber by Letters Patent, have enabled him to oversome the many imperfections bitherto mavoidable in their production, and aim to bring the took within the reach of all. The writing poolic should know the following facts: Constant writing for six months is done chasper wind Gold Pens than with steel, therefore, it is concomy to me Gold Pens. The Gold Pen remains unchanged by years of confined us, while the Steel Pen is ever changing by corrosion and wear; therefore, periest uniformity of writing bothsined only by the use of the Gold Pen. The Gold Pen is always ready and reliable, while the Steel Pen must be often condemned and a new one selected; therefore, in the use of the Gold Pen there is great saving of time. Gold is expalse of receiving my degree of elasticity, so that the Gold Pen is exactly adapted to the hand of the writer; therefore, the nerves of the hand and arm ern of injured, as it known to be the case by the use of Sicel Pens. He is now selling Golf Pens at prices warying from 25 cents to $1, according to size, the average wear of every one of which will far outlast a gross of the best Steel Pens. THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

On the seventh of Septamber, 1981, THE NEW TORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its cristones; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than its early years, this journal has abored in what its condoctors have folt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage media exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country, it has simed to be right resher than popular, and to esponse and commend to-day the trush that others may not be willing to accept till to morrow. In pursuing this course, mistisch have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own error. To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Froductive Industry, through froe grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature of peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, we among the atms to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadisely commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

The distinguishing feature is the entirely original and the public have been a customed to see in the undersigned the Director of the Opera, and the manager of the very greatest recal and instrumental stars such as Sontag, Lagrange, Plocolomia, Angri, Thalberg, Henry Herz, Leopoid de Meyer, Sivori, Vienztempa, and others of the same rank and standing in the European act world. For the first time during his managerial carees of fifteen years in this country, he has temporarily stepped out from the legitimate business, and embarted in his present enterprise with Mr. HERRMANN.

To this he has not simply been actuated by an inherent love of profit, as he has frequently refused to become interested in some of the most incraive exhibitions—exhibitions which, however lucrative, would have afforded but livile satisfaction to his pride and wange propre. But the case is different with Mr. HERRMANN is home of the first and most exclusive Opera Houses, drawing immensie crowds at opera price, and creating a sensition second to none of the greatest he has witnessed, while the distinction of his manners, and his piquont delivery, have reade him a universal favorite.
